ARREST OF TWO BURGLARS AND THEIR CONmsnon.-Shortly after 12 o'clock yesterday morning Officer Stout, of the Seventeenth Precinct, while patrolling his beat in Second avenue, near Houston street, discovered two suspicious-looking fellows a short distance ahead of him, each of the fellows having a large bundle on his shoulder. The fellows, it appears, became aware of the officer's presence quite as soon as he saw them and at once fied, which fact hightened his suspicion that something was wrong. Officer Stout gave chase and soon overhauled one of the runaways, who gave his name as Robert Munert.
With his prisoner in custody the officer continued the chase, pursuing the second party into the Fourteenth Precinct where the fellow dodged into some dark place and thus cluded pursuit. Officer Stout handed his risoner over to the care of Officer Senior of the Foursenth Precinct, and made a thorough search of the pute over which he had passed in hopes of finding the fugitive but his efforts were unavailing.

The prisoner, Munert, was conveyed to the Fourtenth Precinct Station-House, and committed to a cell, when the above-named officers, with others, reswed the search for the missing man. After the lapse d'two hours or more, the accomplice of Munert was traced to a low groggery in Mulberry street, where he was found fast asleep. He was conveyed to the Police Salien, where he gave his name as James McCabe. The bundles above mentioned were secured, and, upon examination, found to contain a number of silk dresse and other costly articles of female wearing apparel, valued all together at $600 or $700. Beside the plunder, the bundles contained skeleton keys, nippers, chisels, jennies, and other burglarious implements. After being some time in durance vile, the prisoners confessed that they had committed a robbery upon the dwelling-house No. 217 Ninth street, occupied by Mr. Wm. H. Sackett, who, with his family, is at present it

Europe.

The burglary was committed on Saturday forenoon, and during the day the fellows ransacked the house change, which they were removand packed up their plunder, which they were remov-ing when detected, as above mentioned. They suc-ceeded in effecting an entrance by breaking one of the fan-lights near the basement door, and then reaching in and drawing the bolts. Muuert and McCabo informed the officers of various persons to whom they had been in the habit of selling their plunder, and it the course of a day or two several receivers will be arested. The accused were taken to the Essex Markst Police Court, and committed by Justice Brounau.

PATAL DIFFICULTY BETWEEN FATHER AND SON-AN UNFORTENATE BLOW-RESULT OF INTOXICATION. -Last Thursday afternoon, Jacob Clute, a man 65 years of age and a native of this State, who lived with his son David in Eleventh avenue, between Forty burth and Forty-fifth streets, drank so immoderately of strong liquors that he became intoxicated. While is that situation, the old man went in front of his son's butcher shop, where some rowdy boys seriously antoyed him in various ways. Young Clute, noticing the condition of affairs, went out and made an effort to get his father into the house, but the old man obstiustely resisted all interference in his behalf, and attempted to force his son to let him alone. Λ slight collision between the two was the consequence, and before the wrangle was over the young man, as is aleged, slapped his father under the chin with his open had, or shoved him aside with so much violence that lefell backward and struck upon his head. Blood suched from his cars and nose, and the old man was taken up insensible. A doctor was called and dressed he cut on his head, which he believed was not serious. Mr. Clute continued to fail, and died at 101 o'clock the following night. The Twenty-second Ward Police subsequently arrested David Clute, the assailant, and locked him up.

Coroner Gamble held an inquest on the body on Satarday. The most important part of the testimony will

Frances Clute being duly sworn deposes and says—
I am the wife of David Clute, the son of deceased; my husband keeps a meat-shop in Elevanth avenue, between Forty-fourth and Forty-fills streets; I have known deceased for eighteen months, he was very intemperate, and on this secount has been on several occasions sent to the country to his relatives to try to keep him away from liquor; about 4 o'clock p, in, on the 8th inst, the deceased was standing on the sidewalk in front of my hisband's door, surrounced by several boys who were tormenting him; he was very much under the influence of liquor at the lime; my husband was asseep on the bed; I awake him, saying that his father was on the sidewalk, drunk, he got up and went out on the sidewalk and drove the boys who were annoying time, but could see desired; years from the occurrence all the time, but could see desired; what took place.

Philip O Hamlon, ir., M. D., being duly sworn, says: I have made a post mortern examination of the body of a man new tying dead in Eleventh seeme, between Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth attreets. I found a scalp wound on the left side, on the seperited posterior angle of the predictal bone; this wound had been dressed; there were no other marks of violences on securing the head, I found a large quantity of extra-vascated blood over the left hegrisphere; the brain substance was conjected; there was no fracture of the skull; the Beart and hungs were scaling; the liver was enlarged and fatty; the stomach bore widenes of the application of alcoholic eliminate, both as to obe and the congested character of membranes. The cause of each was compression of the brain frum extravasation of blood, the result of violence; a fall as described by the witnesses in the case, would produce the result shown.

The case was then given to the Jury, who after a short deliberation, rendered a verdict as follows: "That the said Jacob Clute came to his death by compression of the brain from extravasation of blood, caused by being shoved or knocked down on the sidewalk by his son. David Clute, in Eleventh avenue, between Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth streets, on the 10th day of September, 1838. The Jury furthermore believe that the said David Clute had no intention to inflict the amount of violence deceased subsequently received."

"I had no intention to injure my father, but en-deavored to get him into the house; I was ashamed of his being intexicated and disgracing himself in the streets."

The prisoner then entered into bonds in the sum $2,000 to answer any indictment which the Grand Jury may find against him and was discharged from custody.

HOMICIDE OF AN INFANT.-Coroner Connery held an inquest on Saturday at No. 244 Avenue A, upon the body of an infant eight months old, named Mary Folich, whose death was the result of violence. It appeared in evidence that Michael Myers and his wife, who resided at the above place on the 25th uit., struck a boy, named August Philip Folich, brother of the nfant, while he had the child in his arms, and that Myers wilfully struck the head of the boy and infant together several times, in a brutal manner. The child shortly after had convuisions, and died on last Friday night. The Coroner's jury rendered a verdict that death was the result of violence at the hands of Michael Myers, and the Coroner committed him to prison to await the action of the Grand Jury.

PROBABLE HOMICIDE.-Coroner Connery on Saturday took the aute-mortem examination of a young man named James Gerrety, at No. 27 Sheriff street, who is likely to die from the effects of an assault com-mitted upon him by one Francis Gill. The injured man testified that on Friday he was sitting with a friend in Delancy street, when Gill came up to him and struck him a powerful blow upon the head with a club, knocking him senseless. They had had no difficulty together on that day, but a few days previous some angry words had passed between them, and on that occasion Gill drew a pistol, but was prevented using it by a bystander. The Coroner locked up Gill, to await the result of the injuries inflicted.

Explosion of a Fluid Lamp. On Saturday evening, as Mrs. Kettell of No 51 Hudson street, was filling a lighted lamp, the fluid suddenly ignited and exploded with a loud report. The inflammable material was scattered in every direction, and Mrs, Kettell was severely burned about the breast and hands. Officer Fields of the Fifth Precinct, hearing the alarm, ran into the house, and, throwing a blanket around Mrs. Kettell, succeeded in extinguishing the flames.

DROWSED.—A man named Patrick Lyman, lately residing at No. 172 East Thirty-second street, was drowned on Saturday evening, while bathing at the foot of Thirty-sixth street, East River. His body has CHARGE OF MALICIOUS MISCHIEF .-- Officer Bower Charge of Malicious Mischief.—Officer Bower of the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday afternoon arrested an Irishman named Leavett on a warrant issued by Justice Kelly, the prisoner being charged with malicious mischief by Michael Hughes of No. 210 Sullivan street. Hughes alleges that on Friday afternoon his wife hung up a quantity of clothes for the purpose of drying them, in the yard attached to their residence in Sullivan street, and that said clothes were left out over night. During Friday night, as is alleged, Hughes, in consequence of threats being made by Leavett that he (Leavett) would have him beaten, he (Hughes) did not go to bed, but seated himself by the window. At a late hour Leavett entered the yard and, after several attempts, pulled the clothes from the line, and with his feet and hands tore them into shreds, rendering them entirely valueless. Perceiving Hughes by the window, Leavett made use of prefane and indecent language, and told him that if he would come out he would serve him in the same manner, and tear or cut his danned heart out. In consequence of such threats Hughes feared to go out and protect his property. Leavett, having done all the mischief in his power, went away. The prisoner was arraigned before Justice Kelly, who held him for examination.

Some smart thief yesterday morning entered the room of Richard T. Rayner, at Lovejoy's Hotel, and stole therefrom $75 in bills on the Ocean Bank, of Kennebec, Me. Mr. Rayner gave information respecting the robbery, and said that he felt confident the police could find the fellow, as he did not believe there was any other money of the kind he had in New-York.

A CARD FROM MR. JOHN LIVINGSTON.

To the Editor of The N. Y. Tribune. Siz: Your paper of Aug. 16, 1858, contains a letter addressed to myself, signed by a person who purports to be a lawyer in Williamson County, Texas; but the language of the author is such as to leave no doubt upon the mind of any intelligent reader that, if connected with the profession any intelligent reader that, if connected with the profession at all, he is probably a corner-grocery pettifogger—some scallywag, whose practice is confined principally to the bar of a grogacy, and whose only office is upon the top of an empty dry goods box, where, when sober enough to give advice at all, he may be found retailing village gossip and setting his more respectable neighbors by the ears.

It is sufficient for me to say, that I have no knowledge of the author of that letter, and that I do not believe he is, in truth, a lawyer at all, for I do not find his name in the Law Register. The publication of that letter, conting as it did from an irresponsible if not an tion of that letter, coming as it did from an irresponsible if not an unknown source, certainly seems to have been not only an aut of great injustice, but one which might have led to consequences of great injustice, but one which might have ted to consequence injurious to your publishers. In the article referred to, every material allegation, express or implied, is felse; and I rely upon your sense of right and fair-dealing to do justice to the 2.000 respectable lawyers whose names appear in the "Catalogue" alluded to in the letter in question, and to make them some reparation by permitting me to assert, in yourwidely circulated paper, the fact that there cannot be found twe-nty hundred more per, the fact that there cannot be found twe nty hundred more transworty and responsible attorneys in this country than are contained in the "Cata-logue giving the name and residence of an efficient and reliable practicing Lawyer, for every County in the United States and Canada," a copy of which I send herewith, that you may test it by personal experience.

Yours respectfully, JOHN LIVINGSTON, New York, Sept. 11, 1838.

Petition of the Citizens of New-York to the Common Council,

Asking for the Repeal of the Ordinance preventing the Renaise of the Ordinance preventing the Renaise of Locomotives on the Harlen Rahlendad below Forth-second Street, September, 1858.

To the Harlendal the Mayer, Aldermen, and Members of the Common Council of the City of New York.

The Petition of the Subscribers respectfully shows: That the convenience and business strangements of a very large number of the inhalistants of the City of New York and of the adjacent Counties, as well as of the traveling public, who are required to pass over the Hurbon Railread within the City, will be very injuriously affected by the enforcement of any city ordinance or regulation to prevent the use of Steam Locomotive Engines between Forty second and Thirty-second streets.

The Subscribers therefore respectfully pray your Hosors to pass an ordinance repealing all former ordinances and requisitions, restraining or prohibiting the use of Locomotive Engine-propelled by Steam upon the said Railroad, at any point north-propelled by Steam upon the said Railroad, at any point northerty of Thirty-second Street.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c. Dated at the City of New York, the Nineteenth day of August, 1858.

LAW INTELLIGENCE.

THE LOWBER CASE.

SUPREME COURT—SPECIAL TREE—SEPT. IL—Before Judge Issuanana.

The People and Arariah C. Flang art. Robert W. Lowber and and the Mayor, &c., of New York.

This action is brought in the name of the People, and A. C. Flang, as Controller of the city and a corporator and tax payer, on his own behalf and on behalf of all other corporators and tax-payers, against the defendents to obtain an injunction staying the proceedings upon a judgment, and praying that the judgment recovered by the defendant Lowber may be see aside; and that the defendants, the Mayor, &c., may be enjoined from completing the purchase of certain land from Lowber for a market purpose, and to declare such conland from Lowber for a market purpose, and to declare such con-land from Lowler for a market purpose, and to declare such outract void.

The Common Council by resolution directed such purphase to be made in January, 1857, in the Board of Aldermen, and in February, 1857, by the Board of Councilment.

By the omission of the Mayor to sign or return the same with his objections, this resolution became a law at the expiration of an days. The deed was tendered to the Mayor and Couroller, who refused to accept the same or to complete the purroller, who refused to accept the same or to complete the purhave. Subsequently Lowler brought an action against the Mayor, A.c., and recovered against them the amount of the conideration money of the said premiser so agreed to be sold, and has issued an execution therefor. The cause was brought on the pole bleadings, and a motion was made to dismiss the dompoint to the reasons hereafter stated.

The complaint alleges various reasonst such as want of power to make the purchase; the improper mote of making it—by the resolution, and not by the Controller; that the purchase was illegal; that the price paid for the land exceeded its value; that the property was encumbered by mortigage; and that, in passing the resolution for the purchase, the Common Council was guilty to a base of roat and of usurpation in office.

to make the pricenses, the improper most or making and the price paid for the land exceeded its value; that the price paid for the land exceeded its value; that the property was encumbered by mortinger; and that, in passing the resolution for the purchase, the Common Council was guilty of an abuse of rust and of usurpation in office.

The defendants filed their answers, denying the allegations upon which the action was founded.

This action was brought in pursuance of an order made by this Court at these all Term, in the action of Lowber agt. The Maxor, &c., on the motion to medify the order staying proceedings, in which an action was required to be commenced in the name of the Controller, or some other taxpayer, and security was to be given for damages arising from the injunction.

Since that order was made, the General Term of this District has decided that no taxpayer could usnitatin such an action.

This decision would control me as to the maintenance of this action in the name of a taxpayor, whatever might be ny spinion upon the question then assimption to the General Term, and as far as it is sought to maintain this action in the name of the Controller, as a taxpayer, under that decision, it would be bound to dismiss the complaint.

The People of the State are also joined as pisinitiff, and the question that proporation for any alleged froud in making a contract, or to prevent the exercise of powers not possessed by them under their charter.

Proceedings by way of information have often been brought to England and this country against corporations and are common in the books. These proceedings have repeatedly been sustained to restrain such corporation for any alleged froud in making a contract, or to prevent the exercision powers not possessed by them. In the Attorney General was the Birminham and Oxford Railroad Company 18 Law & Eq. R., p. 4250. The Lord Chancelor ways: "The Attorney General was the province to restrain public companies from doing an act which they are authorized to be action. It may be provent the commission of fraudelent and in regard to the Corporate property, and the doing of acts not authorized by their Charter.

However unwise, improvident, extravatant or unnecessary a purchase a municipal corporation may intend to make, seither the Attorney-General nor any nax-payer has, in my judgment, any right to interfere by action and by injunction. The Common Cosmell have the power, under their charter, to provide for and resulate markets. They have the sole right to erablish markets, it is a franchise which is conferred upon them by the sugreme authority, and with it conferred all necessary power to carry into effect the exercise of that right. It would have been an idle grant to the city authorities to confer on them have been an idle grant to the city authorities to confer on them have the should not built. It would be an idle grant to the same time withhold the power to procure the place where such market should no built. It would be an idle grant to be show upon them the right of collecting the fees of the markets, which they should thus establish, and yet prohibit them from purchasing the place necessary for earning such fees.

I thank there can be no doubt but that the principle is a corroction, that the grant of the frauchise relative to markets in the interference and markets with it he right to purchase the limit of the power is controlled by the limitation of the Coeven if so, the power is controlled by the limitation.
